

France at Leisure

For the Finest in France

- Paris Apartment: “Your home away from home” -

When planning your trip to Paris, the greatest challenge is always deciding where to stay. You look for something comfortable, charming and close to all the main attractions but you also want something affordable. After all, accommodation can make or break a holiday and you want to stay somewhere that will allow you to enjoy everything this beautiful capital has to offer. Unlike a hotel, a short-term rental apartment is a “home away from home”.

The perfect accommodation for groups of family and friends, an apartment provides you with the space and comfort you need to fully enjoy yourself. France at Leisure’s range of apartments are well-equipped with fully functional kitchens with modern appliances, spacious living rooms, exclusive bedrooms, luxurious bathrooms, and much more. “When we go to Paris to select our portfolio for apartment rentals,” says France at Leisure’s Christian Blondeau, “we look at all the important factors of size, location, style and price, as well as the host friendliness and personal welcome, all to enhance our clients’ stay satisfaction in the French capital”. France at Leisure stresses the need to make sure the apartment you choose is close to the main tourist attractions, shopping avenues, traditional cafés and bistros, and major transport links. We recommend staying in Le Marais or St Germain. With their many cafés and boutiques and their village atmosphere, these are the most picturesque areas of Paris. Our apartments in the 7th arrondissement – close to the Eiffel Tower and the famous Bon Marché and rue Cler – are also highly popular. Or, if shopping is your thing, then you might consider staying in the 1st and 2nd arrondissements, close to grand magasins such as Le Printemps and Galeries Lafayette. Our rental apartments are not only spacious, well-positioned and luxurious; they are also great value for money. Most apartments are available at a discounted rate if you stay seven nights or more, making them perfect for taking the time to really get to know the city. You will pay much less than you would for a standard hotel room per night, with the added value of cooking facilities to save you having to dine out every meal. And, if you don’t mind taking the stairs, you can always find cheaper apartments on high floors in buildings without lifts. A good quality studio apartment (such as our Trocadero) will cost you $220 per night while a 1 Bedroom apartment for 2 to 4 people in Marias (such as our Montgomery) will cost $265 per night. A 2 bedroom apartment for 4 to 6 people in St Germain (such as Bord de Seine or Luxembourg) costs from $395. France at Leisure also has a few 3 bedroom apartments for up to 8 people available from $495 per night in the 3rd arrondissement and $545 for our luxury ones in the exclusive Ile de la Cité. France at Leisure is Australia’s leading French boutique travel service. It specialises in French tourism and tailors itineraries for the discerning Australian traveller. Its Paris short-term rental apartments are one of its most popular products. For more information on quality designer apartments in Paris, visit www.franceatleisure.com.
