This 5 000 dwellers sea side town has been a fashionable place since one century. Its lovely harbour has become an international meeting centre for all sorts of pleasure boats. Tasting Visit of a Calvados liquor distillery

Château de Breuil - Nestling in a verdant setting in the heart of the Pays d'Auge, the Château de Breuil is one of the finest examples of the region's architectural heritage. The Château de Breuil stands proud amidst a vast parkland with hundred-year-old trees. Built in the 16th-17th centuries, many a noble family has resided there, such as the Bouquetots, the Montgomerys, the Bences...

Today, the Château de Breuil is also one of the region's most prestigious Calvados distilleries (established in 1954). It offers visitors guided tours and vintage Calvados tasting sessions every day of the year.

Lodging at Deauville's Hotel du Golf

* Day 3 – 21 Sept. 2018 - Golf at Château de Champ de Bataille golf course

The reputation of this championship golf course as a difficult and challenging course has grown steadily since its inception 14 in 1988.

Created from a huge forest, its fairways are difficult and careful club selection is vital. Champ de Bataille is not merely a setting of breath-taking beauty, but an inventive test of golf to challenge the imagination of players at every level.

Dominated by a 17th century castle, this course with its immense clusters of rhododendrons and centuries old trees is considered as one of the top 25 most beautiful courses in France, and competitors compare this course to the West Course at Wentworth.

* Day 4 – 22 sept. 2018 - Golf at Etretat golf course

Situated at the top of Etretat's cliffs and overlooking the worldwide known natural arches in the cliffs (Aiguille Creuse), this outstanding golf course is considered as one of the most spectacular in Europe.

Like all the authentic links, Etretat Golf Course offers windy conditions and dreadful gorse surrounding some of the fairways requiring long and straight iron shots, which represent a tough challenge for the golfers. Even though you have reached the green, the difficulties remain with the up and down slopes and the flagsticks bending in the gusts.

Suggested visit of Etretat - Located 65km from Deauville, this romantic beach village, is known worldwide for its white cliffs, its roman & gothic church, the market place...

It was also a cultural area where artists such as Monet, Manet, writer Guy de Maupassant and composer Offenbach liked to come.

Sightseeing in Honfleur and its famous painters' port, with its colourful fishing boats and timber-beamed houses, which has been a haven for artists since the beginning of the impressionist period.

* Day 5 – 23 Sept. - Transfer to Dinard in Brittany (2h). On the way:

Half day guided tour: - Visit of the D.Day Beaches (Omaha Beach, one of the bloodiest beaches on June 6 1944, Pointe du Hoc, symbol of courage of the Colonel Rudder's 225 rangers, the American cemetery, Sainte-Mère Eglise and its hung paratrooper, Utah Beach).

Guided visit of Mont Saint Michel with its impressive Romanesque and Gothic abbey and the abbey church, as well as the Merveille, a 13th century three-story collection of rooms and passageways, built around and on top of the Monastery. Museum about the "Birth of the Bay" situated close to Mont Saint Michel, the "Maison de la Baie" explains the history of the Bay on an audio-visual tour. It aims at helping you to understand the astonishing natural phenomena which has given the Bay its unique character

Lodging at Grand Hotel de Dinard - The Grand Hotel de Dinard is a prestigious four star hotel with an architecture dating back to the Second Empire which overlooks the sea and faces the ramparts of Saint-Malo. Close to the beaches and just a stone's throw away from the Casino, the Grand Hotel de Dinard has all the charms of a typical seaside resort and was a favourite destination for aristocratic families during the 19th century

* Day 6 – 24 Spt. 2018 - Golf at Dinard golf course

Dinard is the second oldest golf course in France with Biarritz (and after Pau). Set along the shore, this traditional links course designed by Tom Dunn in 1887 has conserved its Scottish design. Even though the course's length appears short (par 68, 5700 yards), the wind coming from the ocean makes it much longer. Club selection at Dinard is a permanent question for players who have to know how to play any type of approach shots. On this exciting course offering spectacular views on the ocean and the Emerald coast, wisdom and accuracy are the key aspects of the game

Saint Malo, fortified city built in granite rock known for its castle, the cathedral of Saint Vincent, its 14th century ramparts that overlook the sea, and famous corsairs.

Lodging at Grand Hotel de Dinard

* Day 7 – 25 Sept. 2018 - Golf at Pleneuf golf course

Pleneuf is a superb seaside golf course with breath-taking views on the sea from most of the holes. The fairways are pretty wide for the tee-shots, but when the wind blows (and it always blows), keeping the ball in play becomes the priority. The fast greens are well defended by numerous bunkers thoughtfully placed. A few holes are set along the beach especially the eleventh, an outstanding par 5 whose back-tee is placed on the hilliest part of the course and overlooks the whole coast.

Suggested sightseeing in Cap Fréhel - At the very end of 300 acres of wild land, it is one of Britany's most impressive sites. 70 metres above the sea, Cap Fréhel offers a breath-taking panorama from the "Pointe du Cotentin to the "Ile de Béhat"

Suggested sightseeing in Dinard - Not only are there walks along the seafront amid superb scenery, sports & leisure activities, entertainment, sea trips and trips along the River Rance to enjoy, but also the simple pleasures of the beach and bathing in the summer, and bracing walks when the air grows cooler. After a good walk to work up your appetite, why not make yourself comfortable in one of the many restaurants or crêperies
